15.3 Blockquote
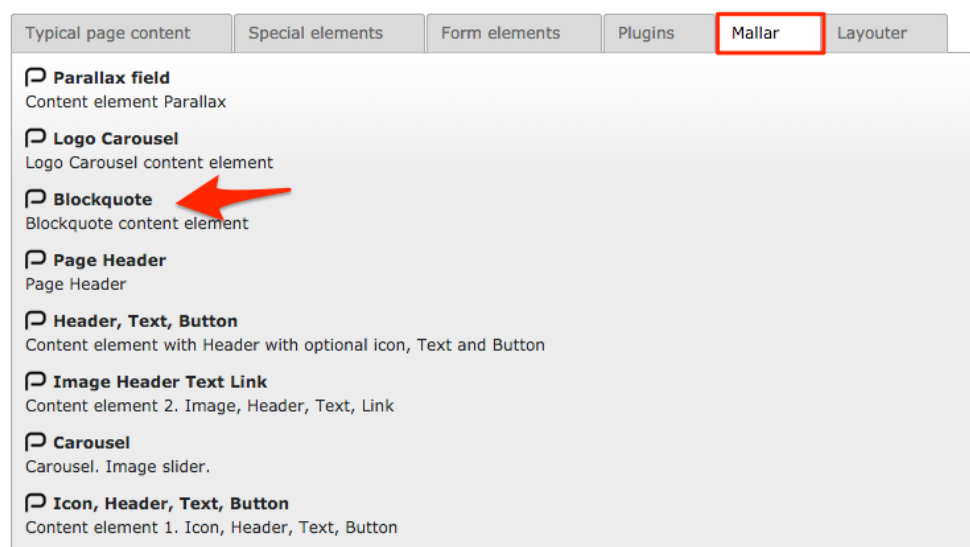

The "Blockqute"-element is often used on the start page as promo boxes. The element is found below the tab "Mallar" when creating a new element (img 15.3.1).

NOTE! These elements are implemented in newer installations of TYPO3 (Pixelant Core), and might not be available for older versions.

15.3.1

This element has a field for the quote (1), a name field for the person who said the quote (2), one for the work title of that person (3), a link text referring to the company (4) and finally one for the link address to the company (5) (img 15.3.2).
