

Extension Manuals

This section of the TYPO3manual.com shows you some of the special features you can find in a TYPO3 installation, like the news function and language layers. The extensions in this section might not be core functions in TYPO3, so contact your TYPO3 supplier if you wish to implement one of the extensions on your website.

NOTE that some of these function can look a bit different in your TYPO3 installation due to later versions and different access rights.
